[poll] Longest most impressive VANITY

April 01, 2014, 11:49:34 PM

To date I have not heard of a project to map or index public addresses generated for vanity purposes.

Moreover, such a service would mean the data owner holds a copy of the key and there for he alone has the interest to keep the db.

There for vanity addresses over 7 letters long are rare.

I want to hold a survey for the longest and most impressive vanity addresses you own or heard of.

To motivate people to post their vanity I will hold a poll and even donate some btc to the leading address.

If you can prove you own the address you go on the poll 😊

[poll] Longest most impressive VANITY

rules:

- 1)Vanity over 5 letters (>1XXXX)
- 2)Has or had over 0.25btc balance
- 3)Ownership can be proven

I made this just to be a troll:

1Niggerw15VezU6rA7jRBuJt9ceg9VL1jh

It has outgoing sends so that's proof that it's a real address

<https://blockchain.info/address/1Niggerw15VezU6rA7jRBuJt9ceg9VL1jh>

If you want me to prove ownership, send me .0002 and give me an address to send .0001 back to.

I also have this one that I never used yet:

1234567pejEviURDJmVVGvVyB34XY37bG4

Can prove ownership in the same way.

Hmm, I have no problem trusting you made these as these should take around 2-6 hours to generate on an average home computer. 😊
If you want the first one on the poll I'll have to get an admin's perspective on that word first

I myself made some:

1FuckXBosMzrs (Dedicated to a special boss that I really like 😊 was setup as regex 1Fuck(s/S/x/X)Bos(s/z/null)Mzr)

1FuckkUSDD

1FuckUupXtqRBG8uSaTTeDzjWtzkkxjHZU (Was my wif pass for years)

1FuckuUP (A twin for my main address)

I'll add proof of ownership later today and might add the second one to the poll 🙏

I didn't, their bot picked it up from my bitcoin-otc WoT key. I keep asking bc.i to untag it and only have opt-in tags, to no avail.

Email me the name of a charity in San Diego,
